¹ Scholars disagree about the actual year of Christ's crucifixion. The traditional date is A.D. 30. Some argue for an A.D. 33 date, and a few prefer A.D. 32. If A.D. 30 is correct, the Thursday of the crucifixion would be April 7 (the 15th of the Jewish month of Nisan).

² The resurrected Lord made other appearances subsequently: one week later to all the apostles including Thomas (Jn. 20:26-29); some time later to the apostles fishing at the Sea of Galilee (Jn. 21:1-23); later to the apostles on a mountain in Galilee (Mt. 28:16-20; Mk. 16:15-18); to the apostles in Jerusalem and the Mt. of Olives at His ascension (Mk. 16:19-20; Lk. 24:44-53; Ac. 1:3-9; to Peter (Lk. 24:34; 1 Co. 15:5); to more than 500 disciples (1 Co. 15:6); to James (1 Co. 15:7); and finally several years later, to Paul at his conversion (Ac. 9:1-19; 22:3-16; 26:9-18; 1 Co. 9:1).

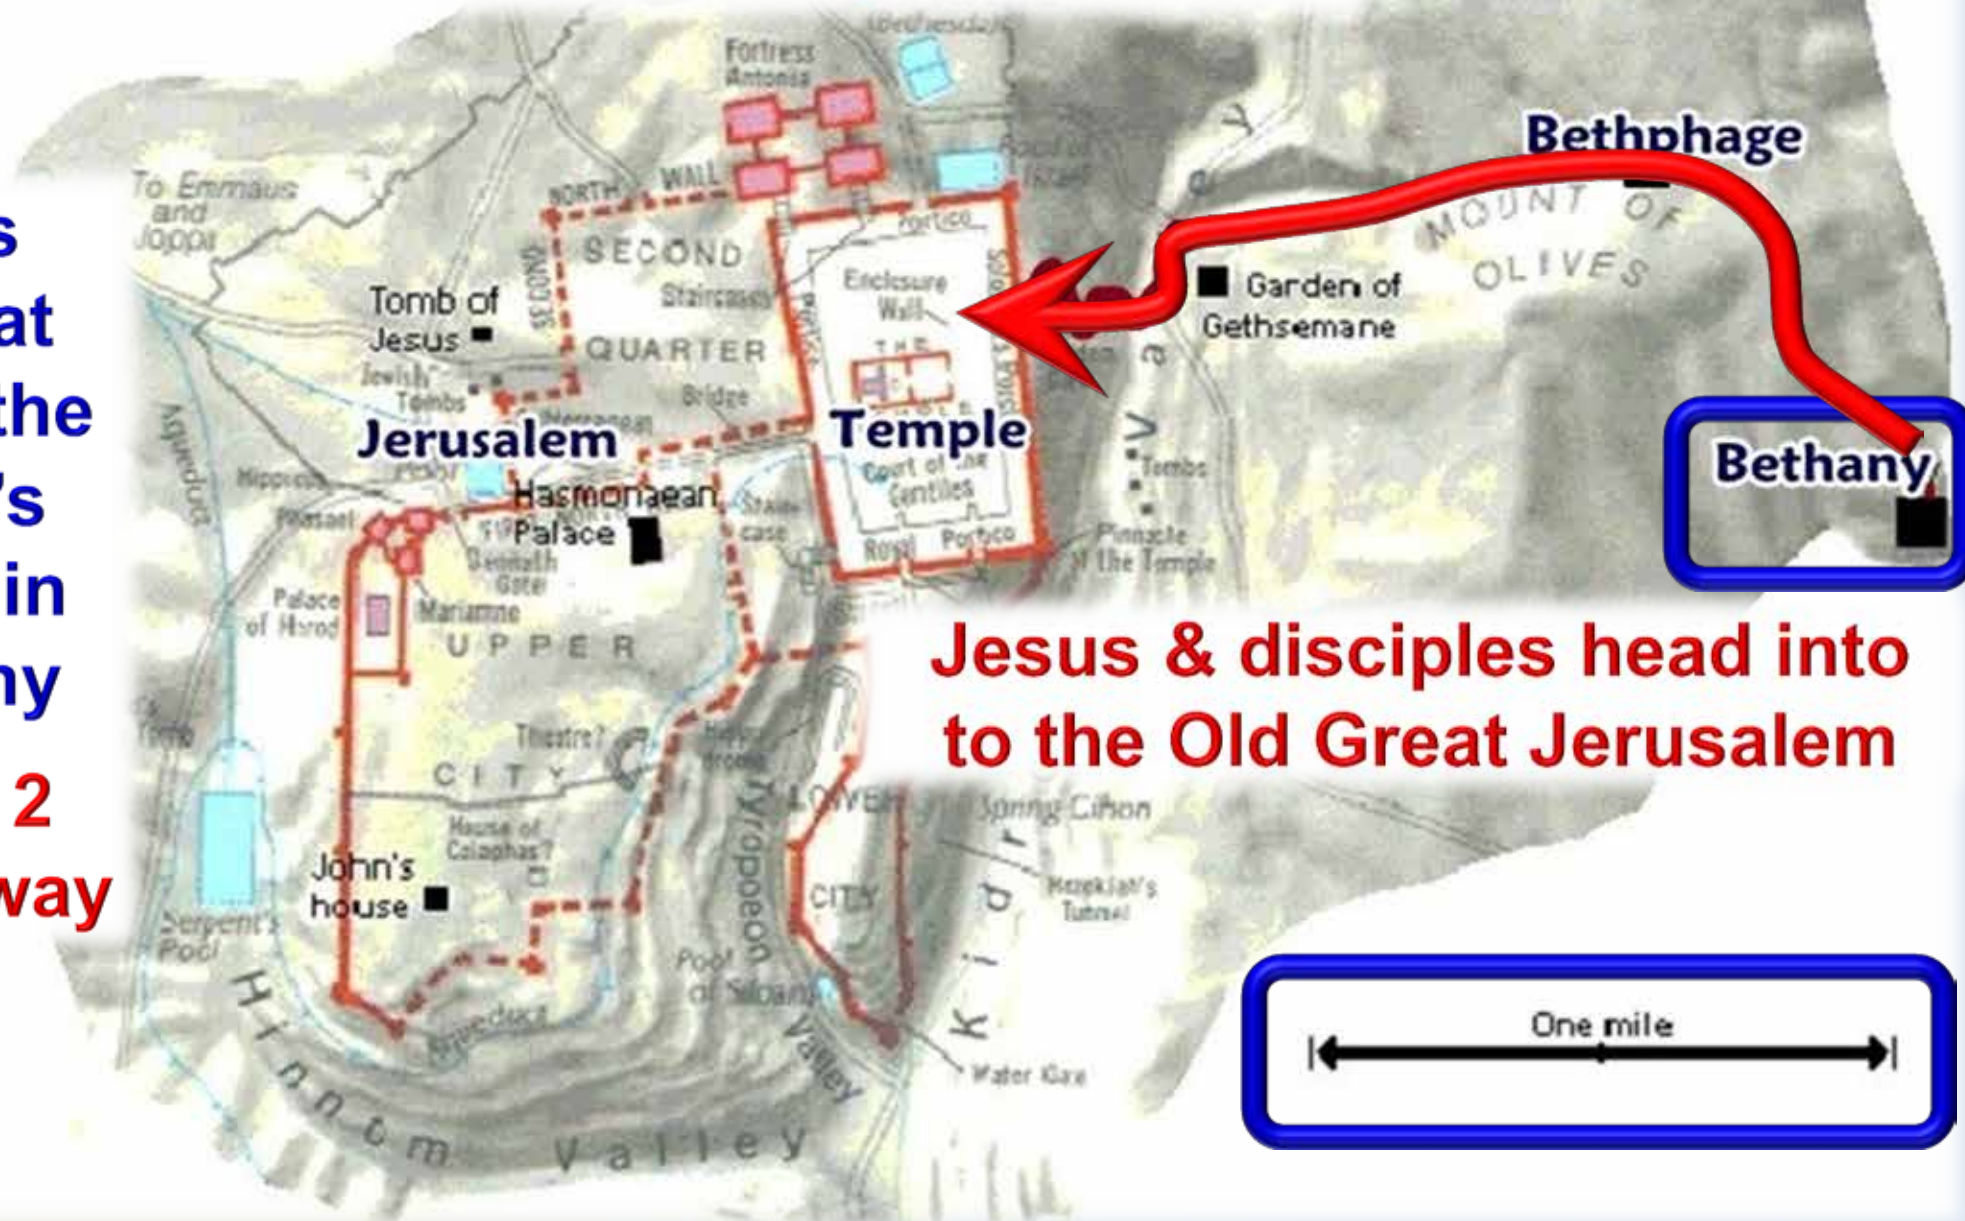

³ Maundy Thursday—This may even be the oldest of the Holy Week celebrations. The term "Maundy" came through several European languages from the Latin word mandatum meaning "command." It refers to Jesus' new commandment in Jn. 13:34-35. It has often been observed with special celebrations of communion, foot washing ceremonies, and Passover seders. Sometimes it includes the giving of gifts to the poor.

After Passover, God told the Hebrews to SCAT ... not allowing their bread to rise.

Grab and GO ... don't touch leaven

Today, Jewish families hide bread in places for children to search ... to "eradicate" yeast from the house.

Family burns the found "bread" outside.

Yeast represents sin, multiplies fast, hard to get rid of ... reminds us of our hopeless case.

Our inability to clean our own souls.

We need a savior to do it for us.

26:17-19 Preparation – Prepare for Passover

17 On the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare the Passover so You may eat it?"

18 "Go into the city to a certain man," He said, "and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My time is near; I am celebrating the Passover at your place with My disciples. ' "

19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

26:20-25 Betrayal – One of You Will Betray Me, Judas

²⁰ When evening came,
He was reclining at the table with the Twelve.

They had finished eating,
To have been there that night

²¹ While they were eating,
He said, "I assure you:
One of you will betray Me."

²² Deeply distressed, each one began to say to Him, "Surely not I, Lord?"

Prophecy? ... or just insight into Judas?

26:20-25 Betrayal – One of You Will Betray Me, Judas

23 He replied, "The one who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl—he will betray Me.

24 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed!

It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

25 Then Judas, His betrayer, replied, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"

"You have said it," Jesus told him.

Watch lights fade from every room.

Bedsitter people look back and lament,
Another day's useless energy spent.

Impassioned lovers wrestle as one,
Lonely man cries for love and has none.

Cold hearted orb that rules the night,
Removes the colors from our sight.

Red is grey and yellow, white,
But we decide which is right.

And which is an illusion.

In the cool of the evening
silver orb ruling the night
Removing colors from our sight

Red is grey, Yellow white
