

"Thank you so much for sending me this Bible. I would appreciate any study materials you may have" requests Christopher, one of the many prisoners pleading for Bibles and Christian content nationwide right now. Requests are skyrocketing in the midst of pandemic fears. Your gift right now will help meet the unprecedented demand to know and experience God's love.

SHARE GOD'S WORD AND CHANGE LIVES

Your help is needed now more than ever.

Prisons across the country are on lockdown due to COVID-19, and Bibles and Christian resources are often the only way to still get hope behind prison bars. And nothing provides hope like the living Word of God.

The demand for Bibles and Christian content is at an all-time high. Will you help us meet the need?
